WELCOME

TO TONIGHTS FINALS!

Evening and welcome to a bumper night of cup football both at Ringmer and Steyning.

In the first final, we have Valley Rovers Old Boys versus Seaford Athletic going for the Division 4 cup in memory of David Watson and in Ron Pavey Sunday Bowl we have AFC Goring versus Heathfield and Horam Reserves.

AFC Goring last weekend wrapped up the division one title so tonight they are on for the double.

In the other final Valley have a chance of their first piece of silverware this year and they two are pushing for the double, but need to win all of their games to be within a chance in div 4.

Very best of luck to both finals, all four teams and both sets of match officials.

Also a big thank you to our hosts at both Ringmer and Steyning Town, as well as the SSFL committee for their time tonight.

We wish everyone the very best of luck and thank all of the match officials and committee members for giving up their time.

MEET THE PLAYERS

Steve Thompson

Hands down one of the best GK's in Sunday league... and his timekeeping is impeccable (not) — turns up just in time for the kick off and still asks who we're playing

Lewis Hide

Colossal defender — throws his body on the line for absolutely everything for the team... and if there was an England cap for farting, he'd already have 100 appearances and the captain's armband

Callum Tetersell

Captain in the making, class passing ability, a presence on the ball and a heart of a lion. Shame he can't hit a free kick over a wall

Harry Bundy

Great on the ball, strong as an ox, wouldn't want a shoulder barge off him, another leader in the making with a chin like desperate Dan

Dane Amiet

Our captain, our leader, quick in the tackle, out jumps most strikers twice the size of him, crazy to think because he's the size of a knome

Lloyd Mainwaring

Great addition to the team this season — calm on the ball, proper leader with his voice, and even popped up with a couple of big goals... but the real question is, is he actually the best player in his family, or just the loudest?

Rob Busby

Tenacious tackler — how he still gets up and down the pitch at his age is genuinely inspirational for the younger lads... but that beard? Looks like it's seen more battles than he has

Sam Hodgkins

Great feet, calm on the ball, keeps it simple, always picks the right pass... and looks like he's just rolled in from an audition for the hairy bikers

Leon Bundy

Born winner, loves a crunching tackle, and has chipped in with a few big goals this season... but his red and yellow cards far outweigh his goal tally — refs see him coming out of the changing room and start reaching for their pocket

Jack Dickens

Can play multiple positions, proper versatile, tidy on the ball and can score from anywhere — tap-ins or top-bin screamers... and somehow looks like he's one haircut away from joining Westlife on their next tour

Ben Fitzgerald

What can I say — most appearances at the club and the top goal scorer to match... Bambi on ice at times, but once he gets going he leaves defenders for dead... just don't let him anywhere near a penalty spot

Mason Funnell

One of the quickest players I've seen — when his legs get going

it's like speedy gonzalez out there. Absolute nightmare for defenders, twisting them inside out... if only he could finish as quick as he runs

Jake Foskett

Came back to the Valley mid-season, slotted in like he never left, scoring goals, saving penalties... and expertly providing commentary from the bench. Loves a good moan—practically his second position!

Jon Bundy

The only guy who can manage the team, coach the tactics, and still sneak on the pitch when he's picked — never offside, knows what he's doing... seriously, someone pull the plug.

Lewis Cash

Talented baller — unreal on the ball, glides past players like they're not even there and bangs in screamers for fun... just a shame his trim looks like Moe Szyslak from the Simpsons

Paul Clarke

Been around the block, can play anywhere you stick him, strong as an ox with a football brain two steps ahead of everyone else... basically the bloke you hate playing against but love having on your team

Kyle Knee

Newest lad in the squad — tidy player, looks a proper asset already... just keeping it respectful for now until he gives us something to absolutely rip him for

CARLING

Runt-in-Tun

Dan R - our young keeper for the day, great with his feet

Poult - an og and skipper for the day but horror when it comes to team talks

Webber - the oldest of the group and has been since the start of the men's team

Wingate - pretty unbearable and a menace on a night out

Toby - unbelievable ball striker but only in training

Ethan - calm and composed, one of the best players in the side

Seany - heading and kicking. That's it

George - a marathon man that loves to nick a goal

Jack wood - another of the youth set up, skinny, rapid. Could go as high as far as he likes in football but with a kid on the way, the dream is already over

Jake S - finding his feet now he's settled and you can see there's a top player coming out

Hicks - main man. 27 in 16. Silent but deadly. Already a club legend

Ron - the REAL slim shady but a horrific linesman

Will G - He's enormous

Jordi - another og, a fantastic player so long as he's given 3-5 business days when turning

Matt - will only come on if we're either 11-0 up or down.
