WELCOME

TO LANCING FC

Good evening and welcome to Culver Road, Lancing for the Final of the GM Senior Challenge Cup, sponsored by GR Teamwear.

Tonight's teams are no strangers to each other and it promises to be an absolute belter.

Tonight's teams are no strangers to one another. Hassocks pipped AS Crawley to the Premier Division title in 2023 and in their absence last season were runners up to BN Dons.

This term AS Crawley are firm favourites to lift the top division title for the first time and could seal half the double tonight against a dogged Fatboys team searching for their only possible piece of silverware.

Best of luck to both teams and a big thank you to all who've travelled to watch tonight.

Your match officials are :

Referee: Leigh Huffer

Senior line: Denis Brain

Junior line: Jason Morris

Fourth: Greg Austin

Also a big thank you to our hosts at Lancing Football Club and the SSFL committee for their time tonight.

We wish everyone the very best of luck and thank all of the match officials and committee members for giving up their time.

Greg Austin

HASSOCKS FATBOYS

Formed: 2012

Bio: Hassocks Fatboys were formed in 2012 out of the desire to give Keymer and Hassocks Sports & Social Club a Sunday League Football team. Members were encouraged to sign up via a sheet of paper on the notice board and the squad came together in a matter of weeks before the start of the 2012-13 Sussex Sunday League season, in which we were placed in Division Five.

2015-16 was more of a battle with both teams struggling to get 11 men out onto the pitch at times. For the first team, a fourth place finish in Division One was a remarkable achievement given the fact it took until October for them to win a game while the reserves at least showed some consistency in finishing second bottom for the second season running.

For 2016-17, the first team found themselves with an unwarranted promotion into the Premier Division of the Sussex Sunday League after a number of clubs dropped out. There were strong fears that the step up would prove to be one beyond the Fatboys and it certainly looked that way as McCarthy's side occupied bottom spot in the league after three games having conceded 18 goals. Even as late as February they looked consigned to relegation until a remarkable haul of 10 points of a possible 15 kept them up on the final day of the season.

MEET THE PLAYERS

Reece Wickwar - reserve manager
Reece has chipped in where possible this year having spent hundreds of man hours chasing a largely disinterested pack to scrape a side together most weeks. May well complete another season in the goalposts he loves so much.

2. Ryan Flack - widely tipped to be the next James Bond. Animal lover Ryan is an accomplished left back who loves getting up and down.

3. Nathan Gorringe - Nathan's debut season started with a bang. And a crash and a wallop when he fractured his ankle. He's bounced back since and contributed well despite his haircut.

4. Will Jury-Carmichael - injected some much needed youth into the side having impressed under Nick Davie in the 2s. Will isn't bothered about tonight unless it ends in a seedy Brighton bar.

5. Mike McDonald - despite desperate attempts to trade in the football for the allotment, Mike has succumbed to the allure of the Fatboys once more. Never a chore to get him to play.

6. Finlay Herbert - another youthful addition whose highlights include remaining totally silent when he forgot to bring the kit rather than owning up. The youth of today..

7. Arni Kublickas - the only goatherder I've ever met. Mr Reliable hasn't aged a day in 20 years which means he's bound to get a knock after 10 minutes.

8. Jordan Peskett - quiz addict and peoples man Jordan simply gets his head down and plays. Humble and capable is a dangerous combination.

9. Luke Vick - born for the camera. Luke is often found using his children's toys to formulate tactics and game plans which may explain a lot. Recently turned goalscorer with a cool finish for the 2s.

10. Sam Franks - cruelly sold the dream of the vets league before being plucked from the fun and safety of their ranks. An absolute workhorse.

11. Danny Fairhall - has been the ultimate utility when not treating the patrons of Barbaras Beerhouse with his unrivalled chat and charm.

12. Andy Brown - claims to have enjoyed this season more than any other to date which is quite the feat given the history of the club. Always calm and composed.

13. Matt Jasper - rudeboy racer Matt has played when allowed this season and when he has he's been great. Shame about his hair though too.

14. Stuart Brown - Times Magazines anti-hero of the year 2018. Always wants to do the best he can and has a real hunger to win (and for tuna). May even be wearing mid-range boots for the big occasion.

15. Jack Fitzpatrick - another new addition. Sharp and dynamic with an eye for goal. Irish and wears a beanie so that makes him the coolest man in the dressing room.

16. Toby Wiles - taken the time away from his studies on a Sunday to play and he's been fantastic this year. He's streamlined himself by trying to get into shape for the new trainspotting movie where he hopes to play a young Renton.

17. Jack Pedwell - u18 Jack has been an asset to the side this year with his willingness to do what is asked if him - he may have tried to argue against much of this but he mumbles like everyone his age.

18. Logan Newington - the evergreen Ratboy Logan has bounced back from a nasty shoulder injury when he was tackled by the wind in Newhaven. Awaiting surgery so hoping to make the cut this evening before finally retiring.

19. Ruari Farrell - Ruari has earned a name for himself in local football and rightfully so. My word is he potent in every sense of the word.
